Plantings enhance park scene

The large amount of work that has gone into transforming Playles Hill in Corryong has been complemented by the planting of a range of trees on site on Tuesday.

Towong Shire arborist, Steve Sjoberg, organised the works and Andrew Benham and his team from Southern Trees and council staff had an early and foggy start to plant a wide variety of trees, both native and exotic.

In total, 46 trees were planted along the Playles Hill Road and on the south west slopes of the park. As there had been some dead and dying trees removed from the site, it was deemed important to replace and add more trees to this area.

The different species of trees will add seasonal colour and texture and enhance the park for future generations to enjoy.

The official opening of Playles Hill Park is scheduled for Sunday 12th November, 2023 commencing at 10.30am.

Farmers call for wild dog plan extension

The Victorian Farmers Federation (VFF) is urging the Victorian government to renew the highly successful Wild Dog Management Plan that has seen an enormous drop in wild dog attacks on livestock since launching in 2012.

VFF Livestock Group Vice-President and Tallangatta farmer, Peter Star, said the VFF has written to the government seeking the plan's renewal, after 11 years of positive results protecting farmers, livestock and native wildlife from the effects of wild dogs.

"Since launching in 2012, the Wild Dog Management Plan has been instrumental in a 75 per cent reduction in livestock loss and attacks on properties neighbouring public lands in east and south-west Victoria," he said.

"Livestock farmers have come to rely on this plan to protect their livestock from the harrowing impacts of wild dogs and renewing it is a complete no-brainer.

"Wild dogs cause untold damage to livestock and native wildlife, while the impact of losing livestock to wild dog attacks takes a massive toll on a farmer's mental health.

"Wild dog control in the three-kilometre livestock protection buffer is delivering genuine conservation outcomes. It also has positive impacts on Victoria's dingo population by reducing the risk of crossbreeding with domestic dogs, while reducing the impacts of attacks by dingoes and wild dogs on neighbouring livestock production and domestic pets," Mr Star said.

The VFF's calls to renew the program come as a Victorian government review is being undertaken in response to the Parliamentary review into ecosystem decline, which recommended that dingoes, which are considered a threatened species in Victoria, are protected across the state.

"The current Wild Dog Management Plan balances the needs of farmers and the protection of native animals," Mr Star explained.

"I know of incidents where native wildlife has been attacked and the only option is to euthanise the animal.

"I would hate to think what would happen if the program wasn't renewed, so it's critical that the government progresses with the plan in its current state.

"The Wild Dog

Management Plan is a nation leading initiative that is protecting both farmers and our native wildlife. The State government has shown real leadership in championing this program which has been responsible for a significant decline in wild dog attacks over the last 11 years.

"The VFF supports the program and will continue to engage with the government to ensure that farmers and native wildlife are protected from the ravages of wild dogs," Mr Star said.

Museum works provide better access

The Man From Snowy River Museum in Corryong has completed a $100,000 upgrade to its outdoor area by adding an asphalt circuit, concrete access paths and outdoor seating.

The completed works will allow easier access for those with restricted mobility to be able to view the museum's historical outbuildings, as well as providing improved safety and functionality for all visitors and volunteers.

To celebrate this milestone, the museum will be holding an opening ceremony tomorrow, Friday September 1st at 2pm. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Of the project funding, $50,000 was jointly provided by the Victorian and Commonwealth governments through the Emergency Recovery Victoria Community Facilities Grant Program (ERV) in response to the 2019-20 bushfires which impacted the region.

A further $50,000 of matching funding was provided by Border Trust through the Towong Shire Community Bushfire Disaster Relief program.

The museum committee thanks both governments and Border Trust for their important grant contributions, as well as the landscapers - Landscapability - and the generosity of volunteers and in-kind support in making this long-awaited work possible.

Letters to the editor:-

It was a grand community event

I would like to congratulate the Upper Murray Football Netball League on a great Grand Final day at Cudgewa on Saturday.

The number of people present indicates how much local football and netball mean to this community.

The great social benefits for our community are obvious in the happy smiling faces of many generations, plus the ex-pat visitors back to support their family and friends.

Thank you UMFNL for continuing this competition and having faith in our community.

Marilyn Clydsdale.

The grapevine

Club Corner:- The jackpot at The Club Corryong this Friday is $2750. Last week's winner was Corey Saunders ($10) and he also won the motly prize. The final standings in the AFL tipping competition after round 24 are:- 1st - Hugh Sheather 145, Equal 2nd - Ed Barry and Arthur Stockwell 143.

Saturday's senior football grand final was virtually over by quarter time after Cudgewa kicked 8.5 to 0.1 but the large crowd found something to cheer about in the third term when a streaker took to the field, although a discreetly placed covering meant it could not be regarded as the 'Full Monte'!

The Committee of Management of the Walwa Tourist Park recently received a Victorian government flood recovery grant to repair and reinstate access roads and infrastructure within its precincts.

Local netballers playing for Tallangatta this season have made their mark with Cass Heaphy and Madison McKimmie coming 2nd and 3rd respectively in the Under 17s club awards and Ciann Sheather coming 2nd at C grade level.

Vets mark end of Viet conflict

Vietnam veterans (from left) Ray Waters OAM, Ivor Atkins and Col Smedley reflect on their service and pay tribute to their mates and all who served in the conflict.

War veterans, Corryong RSL members and the public recently gathered to pay tribute to those who served in the war in Vietnam. Australia was involved in the conflict from 1962 to 1975, which was one of the longest in the 20th century.

The gathering in Corryong was part of a national commemorative service to mark the 50th anniversary of the end of the war. More than 60,000 Australians served in Vietnam and 523 were killed and more than 3,000 were wounded.

To acknowledge the anniversary the Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA) will produce a Commemorative Medallion and Certificate of Commemoration. The medallion and certificate will be made available to every living veteran, widows of veterans and other family members of veterans of the Vietnam war.

For further enquiries, contact DVA on 800 838 372 or online at www.dva.gov.au/recognition/commemorating-all-who-served/commemorative-services/commemorative-services-australia-6.

Get on the bus for new grants

The Dyson Group of Companies, incorporating the legendary Cobb & Co brand, has launched the next round of its community grants program.

This program has been established to provide grants around Victoria and to date about 70 grants have been distributed.

Program Manager, Grant Deacon, said the program aims to support the many sporting, welfare and community groups around Victoria at grass roots level.

"We are looking for applications that provide local groups with funding to enable projects that have local impact," he said.

There are two rounds of grants annually, each with $10,000 available (maximum grant $1000). Eligible organisations include pre-schools, primary and secondary schools, sporting clubs, not-for-profit groups, charities, welfare agencies, local societies and emergency services.

This next round of grants opens on 1 September and closes on September 30, 2023.

All details including terms and conditions, guidelines and an online application form can be found at <http://dysongroup.com.au/about/community-grants>.

Community responds to urgent need

Following a five-month recruitment campaign and a recent community meeting, the Corryong SES Unit has received 16 membership applications.

At the community meeting, SES officers spoke about the flow-on effect for the Upper Murray community if the Corryong unit shut down and the impact that would have including the increased risk of loss of life.

The SES is now completing the 'on-boarding' and induction stages before the volunteers move onto the training phase.

"I'm super proud of the community and I am grateful they have welcomed me and engaged with me on a really tough topic over the past five months during this recruitment drive," said Tarryn Firman, SES Community Resilience Co-ordinator, Eastern Region.

SES wants to recruit more members who might never have thought they could be an emergency responder. Unit members also prepare the community for adverse weather events, manage radio traffic, complete job reports, fundraise, and support the wider region during emergencies.

For more information contact Tarryn Firman via email at tarryn.firman@ses.vic.gov.au | ses.vic.gov.au or phone (03) 9256 9651.

TEE TO GREEN

Welaregang
A field of four dedicated golfers hit off in perfect conditions on Sunday with Lance Noonan's 19 points leading the way at the turn, then someone heard a "splash"!

Apparently it was an anchor from the leader's bag, as he was overrun by a more consistent Tony Jarvis who finished three clear on 32 points.

Rob Cox played a steady game (28 points) to defeat Paul Land in their McGrath Cup matchplay semi-final. Cox will now play arch rival Bill Bond in a showdown for the matchplay title.

This week will depend somewhat on who turns up to play. The final of the Monthly Medal is pencilled in but can be played the following Sunday in conjunction with the last round of the Phil Cribb Trophy. It will still be names in by 11.30am for a 12 noon hitoff.

Blues News

Netball

A Grade: It was the start we had been longing for. A first quarter performance is something that the Cudgie girls have been working on and what a game to bring it.

Our tight defensive pressure created turnovers right down the court. Kerstin Jarvis and Courtney Simpson rattled the big guns early in their shooting circle. Tumba's shooters throughout the season barely missed a goal however the pressure of the game and the defence certainly gave us opportunities.

Joe Beirs was on fire early alongside the league best and fairest winner Megan Nankervis and Taylor Pynappels who turned it on this week, in my opinion her best game for the season. Shontelle Green came on in the second half and shone! Cudgie young gun Amy Greenhill continued her terrific season with an outstanding four quarters while shooters Ellie Ross and Kirby Hillier took a half each as running shooters.

We had spoken about our team's fitness as a key component of our game and the game certainly emphasised that. Our transitions down the court were neat and certainly full of pace. The girls really took the intensity to another level.

The game was described as a collective effort in which we took control of the game early.

Although we stretched the margin to 11 goals midway through the fourth quarter, Tumba never dropped their heads and mounted an impressive fightback, bringing their impressive running shooter on the court which created a game plan change for Cudgie.

Tumba got within four goals before we took off again for a seven goal lead at the final bell.

A grand final win is something you have your eyes on from the first round and our supporters were in full voice and celebrated well!

B Grade: I had full confidence in the team and the quality of players that took to the court.

Increasing the lead by ten goals at each interval surely was impressive to watch. From the attacking end, Pip Brown and Lily Fair were a well oiled machine in full drive putting up a stunning performance.

Lily had a standout game, creating a terrific accurate shooting game but her intensity through the mid court was equally impressive. Lizzy Star and Bella McKimmie shared an attacking role allowing for fresh legs at each break. Other mid courters, acknowledged and represented in the league's best Ellie Ross and Charlotte Star, both shone and created a very hard task for their opponents.

Jorja McInnes came into wing defence and played her role for our collective team effort. Defenders Chloe Mitchell, Sarah Albert and Charlotte Star also got into the defensive circle and were simply too good for their Bullioh opponents.

Sarah Albert had a season best game, getting tips on a number of balls. Our defence created that intensity and energy that was followed right down the court.

We also had the opportunity to run our up and coming youngsters Jasmine Cane and Marlie McLean into the side in the final quarter.

I am truly blessed with the quality of girls I have to choose from each week and allowing opportunities to present for the young blood of Cudgie in the biggest game of the season is exciting.

Coming away with a 35 goal win in a grand final is a mighty effort - well done girls!

Football

Seniors:

The boys had a look in their eye on Saturday and we spoke about starting well and as soon as the first bounce went up, we were on!

Eight goals to zero in the first quarter really took the wind out of Bullioh's sails.

We had a few unlucky incidents that left us a few men down but were able to keep them at bay and score ourselves. We finished out the game strongly with six goals to finish them off.

We completed the perfect season and went through undefeated and I couldn't be prouder of the group.

Understanding Carbon

Tuesday 12 September 2023

9.30am to 3pm - FREE

Upper Murray Events Centre - 1 Strezlecki Way, Corryong

Agricultural consultant Cam Nicholson will provide an overview of where carbon requirements are heading, the evolution of possible emission reduction technologies, and explore options farmers have to maintain business flexibility while starting to participate in the carbon space.

Register NOW at <https://events.humanitix.com/understanding-carbon-with-cam-nicholson>

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Cam Nicholson is a director of Nicon Rural Services, a consulting business near Geelong working with the grazing and cropping industries. He has 35 years of experience in farm advisory, as well as a beef and sheep farmer.

This event is supported by the North East CMA, Upper Murray Landcare Network and Agriculture Victoria, with funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare Program.

SUCCESSION AND ESTATE PLANNING

The world is in the midst of a generational transfer as the Baby Boomers hand over the reins to Generation X and Y. It can be a difficult and sensitive time for families, often due to competing forces within the family business.

There are numerous questions to answer ranging from how do you prepare the next generation to take over, to when is the right time for transition? What if there has been a divorce in the family and the founder has remarried? How do you bring blended families together?

On top of these issues, what happens if the founder is not ready to hand over to the next generation or he/she doesn't trust the next generation to carry on the family business.

On another level, there may be competition between members of the family to take control. Bearing this in mind, it's interesting to note a high number of family businesses don't make the transition to the second generation because of all these competing factors. Families may lose the ability to communicate effectively.

At RSM we understand the intergenerational transfer of control is often a huge issue that is often not addressed. Families can sometimes be their own worst enemies when it comes to communication and agreeing on the best path forward. Very few have all the answers on how to manage the transition smoothly and successfully without experienced independent input.

Getting succession right requires a deep level of coaching, talent identification and management and it sometimes get missed.

It requires a whole lot of planning to identify the right people to take over the family business and it may take a number of years to execute successfully. It's a huge issue and needs to be treated sensitively and with open lines of communication within families.

Good communication is the key because families often don't communicate effectively until it's too late. Unlike working in business with people at arm's length where conversations are documented, codified and talked about, a lot goes unsaid in families.

A trusted adviser can get into the middle of all those conversations and ensure the family is communicating from early in the succession planning process. RSM can get involved at all levels of the process and ensure families address the future in a timely manner and help resolve points of acrimony early to ensure a smooth transition process.

Cudgewa carries the day

The Dogs restricted the Blues to four goals for the term while kicking three themselves. However, after roosting one from just on 50 metres, Bullioh's gun spearhead Ash Murray limped to the bench with a hamstring injury, taking any hopes of a comeback with him.

Prior then turned back the clock to split the sticks from the 50m arc and extend the Blues lead to 62 points at the last break. Bullioh had little left to give in the final quarter as the Blues' wave swept forward time after time to push the final margin out to 94 points.

It was 'party time' for the Blues' players and each time the VFCL medal winner for best-on-ground, Josh Bartel, got the ball in his hands the crowd clamoured for him to let rip with another of his renowned long-range torpedoes, after bombing two goals from outside 50 earlier in the game.

It was a special victory for Pynappels who is now a premiership captain after flag honours eluded the Blues in 2019 and 2022. He now has three premiership medallions after tasting success in 2014 and 2015.

It was also all-smiles for veteran Blue Greg Wheeler who notched up his fourth premiership with the club.

Cudgewa lost the first grand final he played in 1997 but has won three since.

"It's been a long time between drinks and I'm going to have a few tonight," he laughed.

Blues double down

Cudgewa's A grade netball side added more silverware to the cabinet by outlasting Tumarumba in a high-octane match that had the crowd roaring.

The Blues avenged a second-semi final loss to the Roos by turning the tables in the decider to claim victory 55-48. The Blues were on song in the first quarter to establish a seven-goal lead and maintained the ascendancy for the next three quarters to thwart the Roos' bid for back-to-back flags.

Tumba looked down and out when it trailed by 11 goals in the last quarter but the Roos lifted and put on a mini-surge to reduce the lead to four before the Blues responded to stretch the final margin to seven goals.

The defensive duo of Courtney Simpson and Kerstin Jarvis ensured that the Roos had trouble eating into the lead and their efficient rebounding through mid-court guns Megan Nankervis and Jo Beirs ensured that leading shooter, Amy Greenhill, ruled in the arc, potting 34 goals.

Katie Walters top scored for the Roos with 36 goals and their centre, Brigid Rhynehart, was named best-on-court.

"I'm just so proud of the girls, what a season and what a win!" said first-year coach, Kirby Hillier.

"To get the win for both A and B grades, as well as the seniors and reserves, was just an outstanding day for the club."

Cudgewa was also victorious in the reserves and B grade netball to make it four wins from seven grand finals.

The league would have been well pleased with Saturday's crowd figures as spectators' vehicles surrounded the Cudgewa oval and spilled into an adjacent paddock and out to the roadway.

Blues bag four flags

Cudgewa underscored its mantle as the 2023 Club of the Year on Saturday when the Blues claimed four premierships from the seven grand finals they contested.

They had four football teams competing, winning the seniors and reserves and from the three netball teams in action, the A and B grade sides both saluted.

Cudgewa ensured there would not be an almighty upset in the senior football grand final with a devastating eight-goal to zip first quarter of sustained pressure and speed against Bullioh, to go through the 2023 season undefeated.

The Blues loaded their already formidable forward line by stationing gun on-baller, Jason Bartel, on a half forward flank next to his brother Josh and the pair combined with sharpshooting trio Adam Prior (7 goals), Drew Cameron and Nick Brockley to dominate the Dogs' defence in a scintillating first term.

Midfielders Darcy McKimmie and Craig Lieschke were proving dangerous at the stoppages, capitalising on the superior ruck work of Jayden Pryse but Blues' captain Mitch Pynappels was playing an inspired game, attacking the Sherrin with desperation and getting it out into clear air by any means possible.

Blues' spearheads Adam Prior and coach Drew Cameron (4 goals) were dining out on the plethora of ball coming their way and hitting the scoreboard with accuracy. The other cog in the attack, Nick Brockley, may have gone goalless but his hard leads were clearing the way for his colleagues including the Bartel brothers who combined for seven majors in the rout.

Bullioh regrouped for a second quarter resurgence as the warm weather took the sting out of the match and when Blues' backman Josh Lieschke was 'red-carded' for roughing up an opponent after a fracas and Pryse left the ground with a game-ending arm injury, the Dogs got some momentum to break even for the quarter on the scoreboard. However, it was slow going as Luke Bloom marshalled the Blues' backline troops to bottle up play, forcing the Dogs to kick short or to a contest.

Bullioh marksman, Ash Murray, found space to hit the scoreboard but Josh Bartel grabbed the ball out of the ruck and snapped truly, followed by a Cameron goal before the Dogs scrambled the last major before the long break.

The third quarter was another arm wrestle, punctuated by the appearance of a stalker, much to the crowd's amusement and annoyance of the Cudgewa ruck man.
