Heavy vehicle detour finished

Towong Shire Council has announced that work on the Corryong Heavy Vehicle Bypass along the Stock Route has wrapped up, with the project now completed.

The works included realignment of the Briggs Gap Road/Stock Route Intersection and two main corners along the Stock Route, installation of new drainage and culverts and pavement construction.

"This upgrade to the Stock Route will bring significant improvements, including road sealing to accommodate large B-Double trucks and eliminating a number of tight bends," said Towong mayor, Cr Andrew Whitehead.

"This will provide a safer alternative route for trucks, addressing safety concerns associated with using the main street.

"The project was generously funded by the Australian government through the Heavy Vehicle Safety and Productivity Program.

In related news, Cr Whitehead said council was excited to share some potential plans for more parking options in Corryong and is seeking community input.

"Since March, we've been speaking with local landholders and businesses around Hanson Street to brainstorm ideas for more parking options," Cr Whitehead said.

"Now, based on community feedback calling for more parking in the CBD area, we've developed two proposals for parking on Donaldson Street.

The first option is to remove the median street between Hanson and Harris streets and instal drive-through parking in its place.

The second option is to remove the median street, instal drive-through parking and replace the parallel parking with 45 degree parking bays.

"Both options include spaces for longer vehicles like caravans and trailers," Cr Whitehead added.

To access the survey scan the QR code in the advertisement on page 2 or go to council's website <https://www.towong.vic.gov.au/>. The survey closes on Wednesday 15 June.

Council will also host an information session on Tuesday 4 June at the Upper Murray Community Recovery Hub from 4:00pm - 6:00pm.

Feedback invited on draft budget

“Community feedback on the parking options will be help determine council’s decision when the preferred option is considered for adoption at the July council meeting,” Cr Whitehead added.

“Conversations around other car parking options close to Hanson Street are still ongoing.”

In other council news, the draft Budget 2024/25, including a proposed rate increase of 2.75%, was endorsed at a special meeting on 8 May and is now on public exhibition.

“This budget reflects our commitment to the delivery of the priorities identified by our community and outlined in the Council Plan 2021-2025,” Cr Whitehead said.

“It is a budget we believe strikes the right balance between ensuring your rates are being invested efficiently and effectively, while meeting all the needs of our community.”

The budget includes capital works of $22.6 million with projects including:-

- $4.7 million to upgrade, repair and maintain the 1183kms of roads and bridges across the shire.

- $450,000 to construct the Dartmouth Splash Park
- $480,000 to construct the Corryong Skate Park

“The proposed rate increase of 2.75% for 204/25 reflects our conscientious approach to financial management while adhering to the cap set by the Victorian government under the Fair Go Rates System,” Cr Whitehead explained.

Submissions on the proposed budget can be made via email at submissions@towong.vic.gov.au, by mail to PO Box 55, Tallangatta 3700 or by hand at one of the council offices.

Submissions close at 5pm on Tuesday 25 June.

Ensemble set to entertain

On Sunday 21st June, a unique performance from Australia’s own Orpheus Trio and special guest soprano Merlyn Quaife AM will take place at the Corryong & District Memorial Hall.

The Orpheus Trio was formed in early 2012 and comprises pianist Helena Kernaghan, violinist Kaori Sparks and cellist Sam Goble. The group enjoys the challenge of being an interstate, rural dwelling ensemble with members calling Albury and Castlemaine home.

Orpheus has established itself as one of Australia’s leading regional chamber ensembles and collaborates with a diverse range of accomplished musicians.

The Orpheus Trio performance will include a classical repertoire of various composers and will feature Merlyn Quaife, with whom they have collaborated with previously.

A performer of great versatility, the distinguished soprano Merlyn Quaife was made a Member of the Order of Australia Award in the Queen’s Birthday 2013 Honours List for significant service to music.

She has performed opera, oratorio, Lieder, chamber music and contemporary music to great acclaim throughout Australia and Europe.

Blues honour past heroes

The Cudgewa Football Netball Club is hosting players and their families from six previous premierships teams this Saturday, May 25th, at its home game against Corryong.

Many players from the 2004 Reserves, 2014 Seniors, 2014 U15 Juniors, 1973 and 1974 Seniors and the 1974 U16 Juniors are expected to attend the celebrations.

“It has been 50 years for some of these players and it will be tremendous to see them again,” said club stalwart, John Star.

“The 1973 and 1974 premierships teams were at the end of a golden era for the club, with eight senior team premierships in fourteen years. Both teams were coached by John Mulligan, being only 20 years of age on the first occasion.

“The 1973 grand final was played against Walwa in very muddy and heavy conditions, resulting in a low scoring game where Cudgewa 6-5 (41) defeated Walwa 5-5 (35).

“Many fans will recall that match was not without incident!

“The 1974 grand final was played against Federals, where the win was more comfortable. Cudgewa 13-10 (88) defeated Federals 7-10 (52).

“Both premierships teams were made up of big, strong, mobile men with a mix of great small players.”

The teams included a number of Blues stars including John Mulligan, Ben Byatt, Les Hilton, Andrea Peers, Darryl Rudd, Malcolm Star, Noel

Byatt, Colin Carkeek, John Wild, Rodney Whitehead, Trevor Laverty, Ray Bodsworth, Colin Smedley, Allen Politis, Paul Land, Peter Ward, Brian Smedley, Ken Land, Barry Byatt, Tom Smedley, Trevor Carkeek, Paul Laverty, Robert Chitty, Charlie Wortman, Jeff Ross, Merv Ward, Lance Buswell, Trevor Stuckey, David Laverty and Peter Carkeek.

“The club committee is looking forward to seeing as many past players and supporters as possible and an afternoon tea will be served to reunion participants attending,” John added.

“To those attending, we wish you a great day of catching up with lifelong friends and remembering past players that are no longer with us.”

FOCUS PARTNERS - OUR FOCUS IS YOUR FUTURE

Volunteers can fill many roles

This National Volunteer Week, the CFA and its partner emergency service volunteer organisations, acknowledge and thank the tens of thousands of Victorians for their unpaid contributions to their communities.

This year's NVW theme 'Something for Everyone' is particularly relevant to CFA, the state's largest volunteer organisation, which provides many opportunities for its members to play a role which suits them, gain skills and qualifications and reach their potential.

"Not only is our organisation a core part of Victoria's emergency service network but members also gain social connections and build a greater sense of inclusion within their local town," said Acting Chief Officer, Garry Cook.

"CFA thanks and celebrates its 52,000 volunteers for their ongoing dedication in protecting Victorian communities.

"Our 'Give Us a Hand' recruitment campaign, launched last year, proved a huge success with more than 1,800 highly skilled and professional new members recruited."

Mr Cook said it was extremely encouraging to see so many Victorians sign up to be a volunteer and be part of something bigger in their local community.

The Corryong CFA is seeking more volunteers and women and people from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to get on board.

"CFA recruited 1844 new members since the campaign launched in August last year and we continue to grow," he said.

"Across Victoria brigades have recruited members and continue to, but there are some areas still in need.

"Our organisation is unique in offering volunteers the opportunity to gain leadership skills, training and experience while serving their communities. It's also a great place to meet and work with people from all walks of life," Mr Cook added.

The CFA is a great place to meet and work with people from all walks of life.

"The push for more volunteers to join CFA is an investment in the future of Victoria's emergency response and recruitment is ongoing.

"Regional and rural communities are still very much in need of more volunteers particularly daytime responders and young members.

"We are looking to recruit from all of the community to ensure CFA brigades are truly reflective of the communities they serve and protect.

"Anyone interested in taking on a new challenge should get in touch with their local CFA brigade or go to the CFA website.

"There is something for everyone at CFA whether you want to train up as a firefighter or take on a support role at the brigade."

Some of the types of incidents CFA volunteers respond to include road crash rescues, structure, grass and scrub fires and hazmat incidents.

"Our volunteers are some of Victoria's greatest assets and we are grateful to each and every one of you who has put up your hand to join CFA," Mr Cook said.

If you're interested in joining CFA or learning more about volunteering, visit www.cfa.vic.gov.au/volunteer. Once you've submitted your expression of interest online, your local brigade will contact you about the next steps.

Realignment Completed

Work on the Corryong Heavy Vehicle Bypass along the Stock Route has wrapped up, with the project now completed.

Here's what we've accomplished:

- Installed new drainage and culverts along Stock Route
- Pavement construction works
- Sealed approximately 3 kms of road

Community stonewalled over hospitals

Member for Benambra, Bill Tilley, says the Victorian government's ongoing refusal to provide vital planning papers for hospitals in Wodonga and Albury is either contempt or incompetence.

"Last Wednesday marked 10 weeks since the request for the documents was passed unanimously in the upper house of the Victorian Parliament," Mr Tilley said.

"The long since expired deadline for the papers was March 27."

Member for Northern Victoria, Wendy Lovell, demanded in Parliament that the government release the documents before the Parliament sits again on Tuesday, May 28. Mr Tilley agrees.

"Similar papers requested of the New South Wales government were provided within three weeks and yet we are being stonewalled for months," he said.

"The border community needs to understand how the decision to build at the Albury campus will make their lives better, their healthcare better.

Ms Lovell said it was an insult to the community and democracy.

"It has been 10 weeks, and they have not been able to produce those documents that were demanded by this house," she said.

"We have these deadlines to enshrine democracy and transparency but what we get is tokenism and excuses.

"The ongoing delay fuels the community's fears that this decision was politically motivated, rather than driven by the current and future health needs.

"About 300,000 people rely on this Victorian health service and they deserve the truth."

Charity tea was a hit

A High Tea Fundraiser held last Sunday to raise money for brain cancer research was a huge success.

Thank you to everyone that supported or helped in anyway.

We booked out very quick and hopefully we will get to do it again next year.

We made $3,022 on the day, which was a great effort.

We are still collecting during May and a donation box is at Corryong Cafè Brew.

Once again thank you everyone.

Leonie Wilson.

Council watchdog proposed

As residents of Corryong and the Upper Murray, many of us have long felt the need for better communication amongst ourselves and with the Towong Shire Council.

We believe that a Residents and Ratepayers Association would provide us with an organised platform to voice our concerns, lobby for changes and empower our local community.

In many towns across Australia, such associations have been instrumental in bringing about positive change. They serve as a bridge between the people and the authorities.

For instance, according to data from the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS), areas with active resident associations have reported higher levels of civic participation.

Corryong deserves this too. By forming an association here we can ensure that our voices are heard at every level of decision-making within our shire.

This is not just about improving communication, it's about taking charge of our future as a community.

Please come along to the inaugural meeting of the Corryong Residents Association on Friday May 31 at 12pm at Cafè 3707.

In the best interests of the community,

Kerry Flanagan and Kate Wheeler.

Project Update

The work to expose the underground fuel tanks in front of the IGA and leather shop was completed last week, followed by sampling of the tank contents in preparation for the decommissioning process.

Stage 2 of the project recommenced on Monday, with contractors focusing on drainage works this week. Next week, work will progress to the installation of electrical conduits and verandah posts.

New watermain testing is also being carried out this week, with the changeover from old to new expected to commence in the coming weeks. North East Water, responsible for this work, will confirm the details with affected businesses.

We thank you for your patience and cooperation as we carry out these essential tasks.

Awards: Chloe McInnes and Emily Samwells.

Under 15s:- A great game by the team to take another win over Tumba 42 to 21. The girls hit the court with a few nerves, which saw Tumba take the lead after the first quarter (this was a coach's tactic to get the fire in the belly and fire they did). Ruby-Jean Klippel was back in the side after injury and made her present felt with some great intercepts and reading the play. Ava Dakin's sheer determination in GK means not a lot gets past with her body on defence and rebounds. Shoutout to Belle McVean, Taylor Turnbull and Charlotte Klippel who are improving every week and hold steady in defence and mid court and will be the future of the U15s.

Marlie McLean and Quinn Galbraith give their all, all game, every game with Quinn taking on tactical set plays on game day which saw the ball move swiftly and effortlessly down to attack. Marlie made the most of feeding around the ring and capitalising with goals. Lola Paton is a true asset in GS with fantastic reach on rebounds and reading the play very well with equally shooting for goals.

Billie Galbraith and Tilly Paton never cease to amaze me with their can-do attitude and applying pressure on their opposition while also leading in attack. Tilly Paton I saw you jump your own height, and we will be utilising this at training and future game!

Awards: Belle McVean, Charlotte Klippel and Quinn Galbraith

Under 11s:- Another super game which at times had me questioning why I was there with their playmaking standing out strongly.

Each week I give them a task and they ace it! We are still working on front position and creating space but they keep getting better each week.

Having 12 girls can be quite a task to manage but they are accepting positional changes and time off court gracefully.

Their team work and appreciation for each other, especially when they are in new positions is exceptional, and these qualities shone bright.

After the game an umpire asked if she could give an award for listening to what she said and adjusting her play to the umpire expectations - to do this at age nine truly is admirable!

TEE TO GREEN

Welaregang results
When the first group of three players - Dixie, Bill and Ken - returned to the club house they were pretty happy with their scores of 33.34 and 34 respectively, thinking they may have filled the dias.

However, on a day of very good golf by all seven participants, they just weren't in the race! Paul Land bounced back to form with a very good 38 points but it was club veteran Rob (Cocko) Cox who was crowing having carded an exceptional 44 points to win by a casual half a dozen. Needless to say Rob will have a nice new handicap to take with him to the Adelong Tournament this weekend.

Members please note that, starting this week, the Sunday competitions will now tee off at 11am - not 12 noon.

Around the local clubs

Football

Under 9s:- The team had another great win and continued their hunger for the ball and their teamwork was impressive. Best players were Billy Jarvis, Jack Porter, Ollie Paton, Miller Galbraith and Hunter Bailey.

Under 12s:- The team had a one-sided win with Tumba having few players and Cudgewa providing them with six players per quarter. It was a fun game with players not giving an inch to their 'rivals'. Best players were Connor Wray, Rider Pierce, Trixie Nugent, Harry McVean and Katie Pierce.

Netball

A Grade:- Every week the girls show up with commitment and consistency, leading them into to 22 goal win against Tumba. While we were missing a few players, the girls stepped up to fill those shoes and did not disappoint. Anna Beirs slotted in perfectly in defence, with her strong pressure and hands on everything she proved to be a tough opponent. Mego was on fire all day, continuously going after every ball and flying through the air in defence. Our midcourt ran all day, moving and feeding perfectly into the D. Another strong game from Rach in GA, giving the opportunity for Pip to jump on the court and show off her talent.

Awards: Megan Nankervis, Rach Ciccone, Jo Beirs.

B Grade:- A great game with the girls fighting hard until the end to get a 15 goal win. Tumba came out strongly in the first quarter but the girls kept their cool and matched their intensity. Jasmine was without a doubt best on court, being strong in defence all day and keeping the ball flowing in attack. Sarah was the strength we needed in the defensive end, shutting down her GS all game. Lil and Pip remain consistent in our shooting every week and Saturday was no exception. Young gun Gemma McNamara slotted perfectly into the D, creating great movement and showing confidence with the ball.

Both players position themselves for the mark in synch.

Awards: Jasmine Cane, Sarah Albert, Pip Brown.

C Grade:- Another great win for the girls defeating Tumba 31 to 23 - fitness and training skills are now paying dividends with the girls playing hard body on body and holding their own throughout the whole game.

Starting the charge is evergreen Brie Jones with strong presents in GS allowing for easy access around the ring and some super goals scored, combined with Gemma McNamara who when she digs deep is unstoppable. Never give up comes to mind with this combination and add the talented Zoe McKimmie whose speed and agility outgunned her opponents all game. The mid-court combination of Quinn Galbraith, Marlie McLean Shannen Collins, Lexi Galbraith and debut of Izzy Cottrell saw some great defence and strong turnover in midcourt.

Defence is improving every game with Chloe Kennedy putting pressure on attack with deflection on ball. Jorja McInnes's defence and block was very successful in turnarounds with the tactics practiced and implemented on game day was great to watch. Ruby-Jean Klippel's reading of the play and intercepting balls was great assistance in the win.

Awards: Brie Jone, Gemma McNamara, Zoe McKimmie.

D Grade:- What a battle. The girls came out with fire in their bellies but unfortunately the score slowly got away but the girls fought right to the very end. Final score was 20 - 23.

In the Demons Den Netball

A Grade:- Another tough game for us against Bullioh, with the final result being a draw. All the girls kept their heads high and kept fighting through until the end. The girls' movement and ball work down the court continues to improve each week and I'm proud of all of their efforts.

We had another strong week in defence with the girls putting up a fight for the ball, determined to intercept every pass. The midcourt's feeding into the ring and intercepts down the court were strong and our attackers were able to hold strong in the ring against their defenders.

This week's best on mug went to Chrissie McKimmie, with her fast thinking and feeding into the ring being right on point. The Pickled Parrot award went to Emma Ryan, a great game in the defence coming back after a few weeks off. The Bottom Pub award went to Izzy Geradi, who despite being a bit sick, kept running and giving her all for the whole game. Keep putting the effort in and we'll see great results, let's get keen for this week!

B Grade:- Another nail biting game that was close right up to the finish, with us pulling away for a win by two goals in the end.

The girls kept a very level head under the pressure and continued to work hard. The mug went to Jess Martin, who has only just recently joined our team and she has made a great impact in our defensive end. Jess was very strong and continued to work against experienced shooters. The Bottom Pub award went to Laura Lee, who is really starting to find her feet in the shooting circle, holding strong and creating great space. The Pickled Parrot award went to Sophie Hewatt who played a very good game in WA providing strong feeds into the ring and great movement on the court.

C Grade:- It was a tough game against Bullioh and although we had a loss, the effort was 100 per cent until the end.

The mug went to Eliza Chique who did not stop the intensity the whole game in her wing role and she was amazing in attack and defence as well.

The Bottom Pub award went to Dara Patricks who paired up with her sister, Maisie Pilli, who received the Corryong Cafe Brew award, in defence and it was truly a beautiful sight to see. They work together so well, and once again came up with rebounds and intercepts and made their opponents uncomfortable.

It's 1-1 against Bullioh in C Grade, so our girls are keen to get the next one.

D Grade:- As coaches, we were very proud of the effort put in by the girls in a nail bitter game ending in a draw!

Taz and Kim kept Bullioh on their toes, securing some well needed goals and the midcourt kept flowing with strong movements from Claire, Cass and Mabel running their hearts out. Our defence was locked into place, once again from Rachelle, Raegan, Renee and Sarah working hard to ensure some turnovers and influential taps.

While it is a shared win between two teams, our Corryong girls should be very proud of their efforts.

Awards Best on Court Mug and Sportspower - Cass Hennessy; Pickled Parrot - Kim Tight; Bottom Pub: Claire Pardon.

Under 15s:- With the cold wind blowing, the girls came out firing and with stronger ball control and great leads and positioning they were able to keep the pressure on Bullioh. The defence worked hard getting some rebounds and intercepts and we were able to make clear drives down the court into our attacking end. Our shooters were put to the test with a tight defence from Bullioh.

The team is developing well and are so strong and receptive to all advice given. Great game girls you should be very proud of yourselves.

Awards: Sportspower: Leah Twigg; Country University Award: Pippa Drew; Corryong Cafe Brew: Annabella Shelley.

Under 11s:- Despite the leaves blowing over the court and the cold weather, the girls still played really well. There was great movement up and down the court and getting in front. It was great to watch.

Awards: Delaney Kell-eher, Harriet Murdoch, Mia Miller.

Top two follow the script

Favoured teams Bullioh and Cudgewa both got off to sluggish starts against their opposition in Saturday's round of local football before cantering away with percentage boosting wins against Corryong and Tumbarumba respectively.

Corryong was playing its first home game for the season after the oval was given time to recover from last month's bush festival and put up an improved showing in the first half against the second-placed Bulldogs.

The Demons were prepared to run hard at the ball and create a stoppage which unsettled the usually smooth Dogs' transition from defence to attack and when the Dees went forward they converted their opportunities to boot four goals straight to keep them in touch at the main break.

A more focused Bullioh side swept aside the Dees resistance in the second half to kick 13 goals to three with star forward Ash Murray getting off the chain to post nine majors while coach Clint Brunnemeyer contributed three.

Evan Nicholas was a beacon in attack for the Demons up forward and kicked three of their seven goals but Bullioh's backline held firm for the majority of the match.

Cudgewa also started slowly against Tumbarumba and less than two goals separated the combatants at the first break.

Jim Waters, Joe Holt and Jake Spackman were breaking even in general play but the Roos' forwards were unable to take advantage while the Blues eked out three goals in the second term to edge out to a 27-point lead at the half time siren.

In his first senior match for the year, ruckman Ash Greenhill was providing Mitch Pynappels, Jack Ross and Jake Hill with some quality ball which got the Roos' defence back-peddalling as Guy Telford continued his stellar form with nine goals. In the absence of sharpshooter Adam Prior, up stepped Josh Bartel and Ben Hall who added three goals apiece to the final tally as the Blues stormed home to 76-point victory.
