New greens get thumbs up

The official launch of the Corryong Golf Club's new synthetic greens on the weekend attracted players from throughout the region and drew many favourable comments about the new surface.

The facility improvements also included a new deck on the Corryong Sporting Complex which overlooks the re-positioned 9th hole, making it a genuine feature of the revamped course.

These projects were made possible with the assistance of two bushfire recovery grants and additional funding from the Corryong Sporting Complex of just over $100,000 and the contribution of all the volunteers who have been involved at various stages along the way.

The golf course upgrade was part funded by the Victorian government's Local Economic Recovery grant program and the club improvements were part funded by Border Trust Community Foundation as trustee of the Towong Shire Community Bushfire Disaster Relief Fund.

These contributions to the club improvements have been recognised on a commemorative plaque on the deck.

After the 2019-20 bushfires and the onset of the pandemic a few months later the course was essentially out of action for two years

In a message to the club, Minister for Emergency Services, Jaclyn Symes, said "We're proud to be supporting fire-affected local businesses like the Corryong Sporting Complex."

Rider survives close shave

Emergency services from across the region attended a crash near Cudgewa last Friday when a motorcyclist lost control halfway down the Wabba Gap on the Murray Valley Highway about 2.30pm and rode 50 metres down a steep embankment.

The rider, a 42-year-old Endeavour Hills man, was airlifted to hospital with non-life-threatening injuries.

The man was riding in a group of about 12 motorcyclists and police are investigating the circumstances surrounding the crash.

In related news, forensic police are investigating a fatal crash after two young men were located deceased in the Benambra area on Saturday afternoon.

Emergency vehicles line the roadway as the bike rider is retrieved.

It is believed a car rolled down a hill and crashed into a fence on private property on the Corryong-Benambra Road at some point on Friday night or early on Saturday

Two 20-year-old men, from Pakenham and Beaconsfield Upper, were located deceased at the scene by a member of the public about 3.30pm on the Saturday.

Anyone who witnessed either of the crashes, has dashcam/CCTV footage or information is encouraged to contact Crime Stoppers on 1800 333 000.

Streetscape moves to next phase

Towong Shire Council has advised that work is progressing on the Corryong CBD Streetscape project, with the installation of electrical conduits completed and the replacement of verandah post footings underway.

Footings and damaged posts have been replaced, kerb preparation has been done and utility pits have been levelled and the contractor is now moving on to the concrete preparation and pouring phase.

"While this work was carried out, business access was restricted for a maximum of two days," said project manager, Vilfred Correa.

"We expect the same interruptions to businesses in future stages.

"While setbacks have affected our initial timeline, preventing us from completing the intended work before December 15, our focus now is to have Stage 1 reinstated before the Christmas period.

"To ensure a tidy Hanson Street during Christmas, the worksite will demobilise by December 15 and recommence in mid January.

"We are developing a realistic post-Christmas schedule of work, which will be shared with the community in the coming weeks.

"We appreciate your patience as we strive to deliver a vibrant and improved streetscape for Corryong."

Sporting club fights back after fires

"We know that recovery from major disasters takes time and grants like these help communities get back on their feet," Ms Symes said.

"We're proud to see these results in Corryong and to stand by the local community as they progress in their recovery."

The Sporting Complex received a grant of $327,004 for the works.

Club gets back on track

After being closed for the past seven years, a new committee hopes to restore the Khancoban Country Club to its glory days.

The committee is intent on "nursing the club back to health."

"We want to see it roaring like it did back in the good old days," said committee member, Charlie Alchin.

The club is currently operating the bar and bistro three days a week and is available for functions as well.

The doors are open on Thursday (3pm to 9pm), Friday (4pm to 10pm) and Saturday 1pm to 9pm. The bistro is open from 6pm to 8pm on these days.

Named 'The Weston' the bistro is being run by Benjamin Weston (pictured), a young local who moved to Khancoban just over one year ago. While he is relatively new to the town, country runs through his veins coming from 'the sticks' of the Cootamundra region.

Ben has a passion for good food and community and has worked in recreational clubs since he was 14.

"Since a young age I've always loved cooking," he said.

"I remember being 10, hanging out in my family's kitchen making a cheese cake. Even though I completely messed it up, it sparked a passion in me that I've never been able to get rid of."

"Seeing the enjoyment people have while tasting my food has always made me feel complete."

The new club committee comprises Charlie Alchin, Samii Cowan, Ann DeWit, Shan Elliot, Taffin Foxcroft, Oliver Repetto and Louise Werrett.

While the club premises have been closed, the Khancoban Golf Club has continued to operate during that period thanks to the efforts of a band of volunteers and the country club committee is now working with it to facilitate a joint future.

Membership enquiries are welcome.

Art show born from local connection

Artists Lionel and Pamela Ward and Evette Pepper with two pieces at their joint exhibition.

Locals have a few days to view an exhibition featuring pieces by Corryong artist Evette Pepper.

Some of her works along with those of Lionel and Pamela Ward have been shown at the Gateway Gallery Wodonga on the Lincoln Causeway for the past month.

Evette, who grew up in Corryong, has the River Art School and Gallery in Riley's Arcade. Lionel also grew up in the Upper Murray and now lives and works in Wodonga with his wife Pamela; who is related to the Tyrons who had a cafe in Corryong for many years.

The show's opening night was a successful event with about 80 friends and family attending throughout the afternoon and evening.

This particular Exhibition, titled 'Creative Moments', consisted of 60 pieces between the artists, with many different mediums used.

"We country artists have expanded our horizons in creativity by expressing what is on our hearts and mind and challenging the typical way we paint and stepping out in faith to use mediums and allow the paint to be freer," Evette said.

"We believe that we have been created for creating, as God is our creator and author so we take the inspiration from the world around us to display unique works of art."

The exhibition is a unique collection of pastels, oils, acrylics and watercolours ranging from abstract to realistic and everything in between.

Evette's works included two first edition photographic prints on canvas of her Lake Catani acrylic painting and her still life Coffee Table series. Limited edition prints will also be available in April 2024.

The exhibition runs until Saturday and is open from 10am to 4pm each day.

Corryong CBD Streetscape

Explorer's achievements commemorated

Until the crowds gathered for the unveiling of the memorial to explorer, Sir Paul Edmund Strzelecki, nobody could have guessed the treat that was in store.

Last Saturday, His Excellency Ambassador of Poland, Professor Maciej Chmielinski, along with Towong Mayor, Cr Andrew Whitehead, unveiled the memorial on Towong Hill Road, which was sponsored by Kosciuszko Heritage Inc.

The memorial marks Sir Paul's life and achievements and his ascent and naming of our highest mountain, after his hero Tadeusz Kosciuszko.

In March 1840 Strzelecki and his party walked along the Victorian side of the Murray River from Tintalra to Bringenbrong, passing the area where Towong village now stands before continuing further along the Murray Valley and crossing the river again near Bringenbrong Bridge.

Never before has the sound of violins filled the surrounding Upper Murray Valley and Towong Hill Road in the way it did with the musicians from the Paderewski Youth Orchestra playing a fiery Mazurka Emil Mlynarski.

What the wedge-tailed-eagle riding on the thermals above thought of the violins and the colourful Polish national costumes, we will never

If that was not enough to thrill the crowd, following a light lunch and reception in the Corryong & District Memorial Hall, internationally renowned concert pianist

Krzysztof (Chris) Malek, the Paderewski Youth Orchestra from Chicago and the Lajkonik Polish dancers entertained and enchanted the audience. Aussie singer-songwriter Melanie Horsnell's beautiful voice filled the hall with her song 'How does the Heart of the Explorer Grow'.

The program continued on Sunday beginning with a Mass celebrated by Fr Stan at the Khancoban Airfield and a series of helicopter flights over Mt Townsend and Kosciuszko.

The generosity of Dr Ernestyna Skurjac-Kozek, Professor Andrzej Kozek and Kosciuszko Heritage Inc along with members of the Polish community has been a much appreciated gift to the people of the Upper Murray.

Thanks go to the Memorial Hall Committee and to Helen Marshall from the Corryong Café Brew and to John Murphy, Colleen Wood and all those who worked so hard to make the weekend such a wonderful success. The audience was treated to a rich array of Polish culture and music and the Paderewski Youth Orchestra was an absolute delight to watch.

The hall's newly acquired baby grand piano was also a feature of the celebrations.

Special thanks to Agnes Potocnik and the hall committee and all involved in ensuring it arrived in time and tuned. Krzysztof officially christened the keys of the latest acquisition!

Krzysztof Malek played the first tune on the new baby grand piano at the Memorial Hall.

Road funding needs quick release

No repairs have been undertaken at this landslide near Old Tallangatta.

Federal Member for Indi, Helen Haines, has welcomed additional funding being directed to local road maintenance but says it must be made available as matter of urgency.

The Australian government has announced increases to two key local roads investment programs. Funding for the Roads to Recovery program will rise gradually from $500 million to $1 billion per year, while the Black Spot program funding will increase from $110 million to $150 million per year.

"I've long called for increased funding for councils to maintain local roads," Dr Haines said.

"While I welcome the government's announcement, I want to see this funding hit the ground as soon as possible.

"Regional and rural roads across the North East have been battered by severe weather events resulting in dangerous potholes and lane closures. These roads are disintegrating before our eyes and need to be prioritised.

"Regional and rural communities spend most of their time on local roads and we deserve to feel safe using these roads to get to and from home, work and school.

"As a member of the parliamentary committee investigating the impact of severe weather events on regional and rural roads, I worked hard to ensure our region had its voice heard and the committee members understood the experiences of local road users."

The increases in funding, announced on Sunday, will be phased in over four years with the government committing to working with local council stakeholders in the lead-up to the Federal Budget in May 2024.

"I will be working to ensure our local councils get a fair and adequate share of this road funding, and that they're not given short shrift in favour of larger, wealthier city councils."

Towong Council will be advocating for its share of the additional funding following recent media reports of local roads becoming extremely dangerous and impacting on tourist visitation to the Upper Murray.

Potholes on the Shelley-Walwa Road have been described as "death traps" and one farmer has taken matters into his own hands and used his own gravel to fill them in.

Many vehicles have been damaged by potholes that are up to 150mm deep.

Locals claim the Transport and Planning Department's solution has been to impose a 40km/h limit for 16kms of the road and that paint markings around damaged sections "were a joke."

Although the Murray Valley Highway between Corryong and Wodonga has been improved in recent times, motorists continue to face delays at two locations near Old Tallangatta where traffic lights have been installed and one lane closed where subsidence has occurred.

One set of traffic lights has been in operation for more than a year while the other was put in place earlier this year. No remedial work appears to have been taken in the meantime.

An enquiry by the Corryong Courier has yet to receive a response.

Club Corner:- The jackpot at The Club Corryong this Friday is $3350. Last week's winner was Peter Hunt ($10).

Volunteers at the Corryong Visitor Information Centre (VIC) often get amusing and unexpected queries - such as "How do I get to the treatment works? I've heard it's a great place for birdwatching."

Local muso lines up awards

Coming on the back of her ARIA win last week, Tooma-based singer-songwriter, Fanny Lumsden, is in for further honours after being nominated for four awards at the 52nd Country Music Awards of Australia in Tamworth in January.

Fanny won the Best Country Album for Hey Dawn at the ARIAs.

She has now been nominated in four categories for the country music Golden Guitar awards including Female Artist of the Year, while her fourth-studio album Hey Dawn is up for Alt Country Album of the Year. Her track Ugly Flowers is nominated for Heritage Song of the Year and her song You'll Be Fine is a contender for CMT Video the Year.

Fanny has already won eight Golden Guitar awards and could make it an even dozen in January.

For when the risk of bloat and grass tetany are at their peak. Rich in Carbohydrates and these critical Vitamins & Minerals needed to beat the extreme challenge from fast growing, lush green feeds.

- Easy To Use Powder
- Butterfly Mesh Optimal Balance
- Moisture Resistant

Bloat in ruminants is the distention of the rumen-reticulum, or paunch, with gas. This gas has been formed during rapid fermentation of the feed in the rumen. The distention is usually seen on the left side as a tight ballooning of the underlying rumen from the ribs to the hip. The usual mechanism of "belching" and letting gas out through the animal's mouth has failed and so the gas accumulates. Distention can occur from pasture bloat and feedlot bloat. Olsson's Bloat-Liq is a molasses-based, anti foaming block designed to relieve the symptoms of this annual killer. Bloat-Liq is rain resistant, easy to use, works 24 hours a day and is one of the best value bloat products on the market. Available in 15 & 40kg blocks. Grazemax For Cattle & Sheep. Lush, fast growing pastures and fodder crops often lack the sophisticated nutrient profile required to optimise animal health and performance. When production challenge is high, nutritional imbalances can cause clinical symptoms like Grass Tetany, Milk Fever & Bloat.
