Street upgrade restarts

After a number of impediments, work delays caused by bad weather and unforeseen re-commenced on the Corryong streetscape project yesterday.

“We’ve successfully resolved key issues concerning electrical conduits and verandah post footings for the upgrade and work re-started on Wednesday,” said project manager, Vilfred Correa.

“The main reason for the recent delay was due to the condition of the verandah post footings. It became apparent that they were severely deteriorated when they were exposed during the demolition process and additional design and costing work was needed.

“During the conduit installation process, we anticipate that businesses in Stage 1 will not have access through the front of their shops for a period of up to two days.

“We understand that this will cause some inconvenience, and we sincerely apologise for any disruptions.

“We acknowledge the impact these setbacks have had on our initial timeline, particularly concerning our plans to pause work during the Christmas period,” Mr Correa added.

“Our top priority is to ensure a seamless and organised site for the Christmas period. We’re currently evaluating the specific tasks we aim to complete between now and December 15.

“We appreciate the community’s patience and understanding as we work to deliver a vibrant and improved streetscape for Corryong.

In other council news, the Corryong community will be celebrating a significant milestone in its bushfire recovery journey, with the official opening of Playles Hill this weekend.

“In the aftermath of the Black Summer fires our local residents displayed resilience, dedication, and unity,” said Towong mayor, Cr Andrew Whitehead.

“It is within this context that the idea for this project was born.

“Council has been proud to support the Playles Hill Working Group in a shared mission to transform the space into a beautiful yet functional botanical park. It now offers diverse amenities like walking and mountain bike trails, informative signage, and visitor facilities.

“As we officially open this incredible space we hope it serves as a place for reflection, reconnection, and rejuvenation for our community and visitors for many years to come,” Cr Whitehead added.

Charity ramps up services

A local food pantry provider for needy and disadvantaged people is now able to offer more support services now that it has found a permanent home.

Corryong FoodShare Services began operations in 1995 as Corryong Food Pantry and was located at various sites before undergoing a name change and relocating to the former Scout Hall in Donaldson Street in 2005.

Following reformation of the 1st Corryong Scout Group in 2019 FoodShare was on the hunt for a new home once again.

After a number of setbacks including additional site works and bad weather, it relocated to the former Girl Guides' block in Harris Street and eventually installed a transportable building on the property.

The 'Commander' building was donated by the community of Villers-Bretonneux in France after the 2019-20 Black Summer Bushfires. The project also received funding from the Rotary Club of Albury ($50,000) and the Australian government's Stronger Communities Program ($15,000) to fit it out the premises including upgrading of the existing equipment and installation of larger commercial refrigeration and freezer units (some donated) and stainless steel kitchen equipment and stock shelving. Other support was provided by Border Trust and the Towong Shire Council and Indigo Power.

The new FoodShare premises now feature six cold storage food appliances, offices and amenities including a kitchen and meal area for volunteers.

FoodShare has been fully operating from the new building for two weeks and has a complement of around 10 volunteers.

"We are receiving deliveries every fortnight to provide pantry services for our 130 clients," said FoodShare co-ordinator, Rev Carol Allen.

"Since the 2019-20 bushfires and pandemic lockdowns our client numbers have increased by 350 per cent and remained around those levels following the increases in the cost of living in recent times" she said.

"The new premises allow us to stock more supplies to cope with this extra demand."

More office space also allows the premises to be shared by other agencies including financial counselling services from Anglicare and Upper Murray Family Care and housing and other assistance from the Salvos.

The community is being invited to celebrate the official opening of the new premises on Friday November 24th at 60-62 Harris Street Corryong at 10.30am. RSVP by November 14th for catering purposes to 0427 762 051 or email aojca2@corryong.net.

Band goes on the run

The Corryong College band recently hit the road for the annual 'Small Schools Band Tour'.

After squeezing gear and players into three mini-buses, the band performed a morning show for Walwa Public School and an afternoon show for Khancoban Public School. The students at each school eagerly listened to the music and joined the band for a fun musical experience.

It has been a busy time of year for the school band including the Corryong Show, the tour, Grandparents and Special Friends Day and the opening of Playles Hill coming up on Sunday.

In other college news, students enjoy their time engaging in community events which gives them a sense of belonging and pride.

Last week, Year 11 students ventured to Corryong Wetlands to plant some trees.

On the sporting front, last week eight Year 8 girls travelled to Albury to compete in the Hume Region Volleyball competition.

Despite not having high hopes for winning, the girls persevered and focused on staying positive and supporting each other. They were all smiles and their team work skills improved throughout the day, nearly beating the top team in the final set (18-20).

Heed the 'Call of the High Country'

By Honor Auchinleck

The Man From Snowy River Bush Festival Elyne Mitchell Photo Story Awards hopes that you will find great pleasure in creating your entries for the 2024 Awards.

This year's theme is 'The Call of the High Country'. Entries open on 1 December, 2023.

Elyne was a great admirer of A B ('Banjo') Paterson. As she was the inaugural Patron of the Bush Festival, it seems fitting that we use a theme that complements both Elyne's and Banjo's legacies.

Paterson and Elyne Mitchell were among many writers, artists and photographers who heard and many who continue to hear, 'The Call of the High Country'. The Man from Snowy River Bush Festival proudly promotes High Country writers, poets, artists and sculptors in the event's Art and Photography Exhibition.

Elyne Mitchell only wrote one anthology of photo stories - A Vision of the Snowy Mountains (1988). She enjoyed the experience so much that she regretted not having started writing photo stories earlier in her long writing life. She loved the inspirational interplay between her photography and her writing and she was always keen to inspire enthusiastic like-minded people.

We hope that you will take a photograph that inspires you to write about your interpretation of 'The Call of the High Country' and what it means to you. The Photo Story Awards invites you to summon up your creative energies and take a step into the bush-covered hills and mountains. Remember the person who climbs the highest, sees farthest...on a good day!

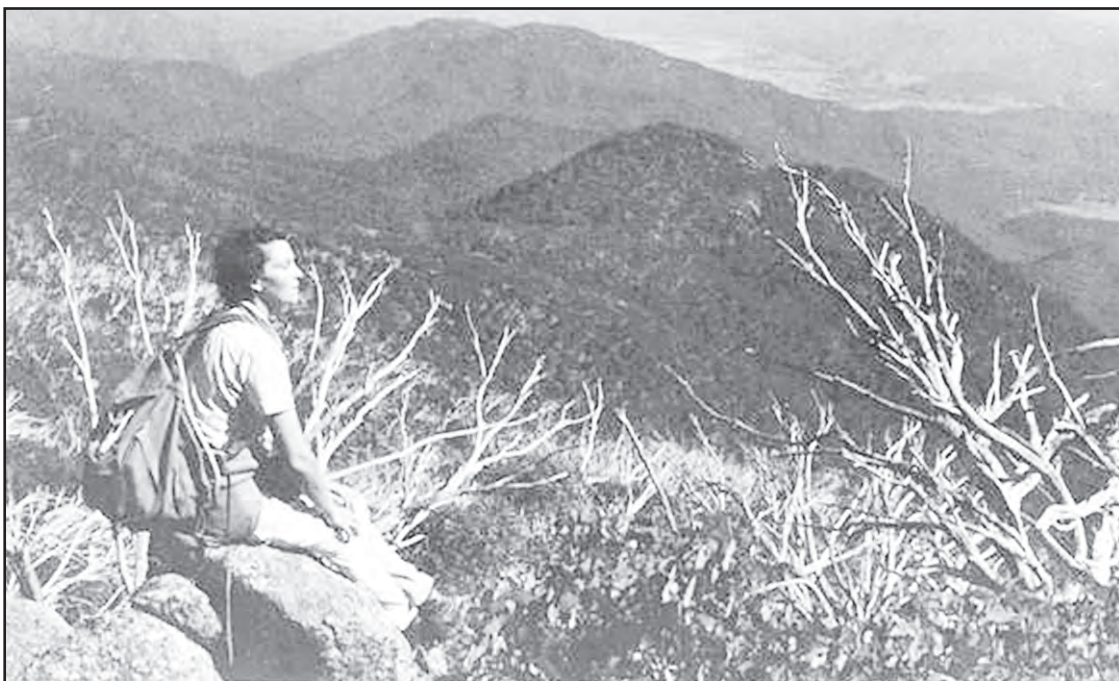

'The Call of the High Country' suggests venturing into the unknown and gaining new perspectives of the surrounding world. The theme promises something different, something out of the ordinary and perhaps even something mysterious, thrilling or even a bit scary. Or perhaps like Elyne you want to find wildflowers among twisted snow gums or mountain streams and waterfalls or to hear the song of the birds and of the wind weaving around the hills.

In letting your imagination run free, please remember the awards' judges. They are the most discerning part of your audience and will be looking at the quality of the composition of your photo(s) and for originality and perceptive qualities in your writing. They will be looking for attention to detail and grammatical accuracy. Please remember that your photograph should be eye-catching and that the photograph and your written component should complement each other. It is important to avoid distressing your viewers with your entry or entries.

You don't have to climb Mt Kosciuszko!

You might just choose some high ground close to your home as your High Country. Remember if you are venturing into new country make sure you do your research about the local conditions. Check the weather. Make sure you are wearing adequate clothing and have sufficient food and drink. Most importantly, ensure that someone else knows where you are going and when to expect you to return. It is always best to go bushwalking with a friend or friends.

There have been enquiries about whether entrants can use inspiration from their artwork in their photo stories. Art is a wonderful form of inspiration for writing. Entrants may photograph their artwork and write their entries from the photograph. It can then be copied and pasted into the entry above the writing component.

Ensure you use a high resolution photograph. The photograph and the written component must be the entrant's own work. If they want to submit an entry inspired by someone else's artwork, for example a sculpture, the entrant must photograph the work and acknowledge the artist or sculptor.

The written component can also be presented as poetry. Do not submit other people's work claiming it as your own, even if someone has given you permission to do so. Please remember the awards are about you and your work.

The Photo Story Awards has two categories - one for juniors under eighteen and the senior category for those over 18 years of age.

You may find that over the next few months you might create a number of potential entries. You can submit up to five pieces, so choose your photo stories carefully and submit before entries close towards the end of February 2024.

Keep an eye on The Man from Snowy River Bush Festival website for confirmation of the closing date for entry and for notification of the receipt of your entry.

The Photo Story Awards took off after the 2020 Black Summer bushfires and pandemic. For some people creating photo stories became a hobby that brought great pleasure.

Local pools prepare to open

Community pools in the Towong and Snowy Valleys Council (SVC) areas will open to the general public for the 2023 swim season in coming weeks.

Pools at Khancoban, Batlow and Tumbarumba will be open from this Saturday, 11 November.

SVC Director of Infrastructure and Works, Duncan Mitchell, said recruiting qualified pool supervisors and lifeguards had been challenging again this year and there had been some early concerns that the Batlow Pool may not have been able to open as planned.

All five of the SVC pools have seen extensive upgrades over the last few years thanks to government funding, including new and improved swimming and water play facilities for younger children, solar and blankets to aid water temperature regulation, new shaded and entry areas and accessible amenities.

Pool fees have been reintroduced for the season with several different options available including daily admissions, family day tickets, single, family, and concession season passes, and after-hours access.

Enthusiastic swimmers can also apply to council for annual passes and after-hour access cards that can be utilised across all council pools during opening hours.

The Khancoban pool will be open for the season from 1pm-6pm.

Visit Council's website at www.svc.nsw.gov.au/pools for pool pass application forms and opening hour details.

The Corryong and Tallangatta swimming pools are scheduled to open for the summer season on Saturday, 18 November.

Operating hours for both locations will be:

- Weekdays: 3:30 pm - 7:00 pm

- Weekends: 2:00 pm - 7:00 pm.

In response to community requests, extended hours will also be trialled during the peak Christmas and New Year period. From 20 December to 8 January operating hours for week days and weekends will be 9am - 12 pm and 2pm - 7 pm.

If council receives sufficient support during this trial period, it will extend the hours to better serve the community.

Belgravia Leisure has been contracted to manage the pools for the next three seasons.

Pennant match ends in dispute

A Corryong golfer playing his first match for the club in round one of the Hills Zone pennant competition at Adelong on Sunday, became embroiled in controversy when his Holbrook opponent incorrectly claimed victory on the 20th hole.

The pair had been level at the end of regular play and then squared the 19th before the Holbrook player 'won' the 20th hole by a stroke. However, upon return to the clubhouse it was revealed that he had to give a shot on handicap on the par three, therefore squaring the match again.

The Holbrook player, Phil Stokes, declined to continue play and forfeited the match to Corryong debutante, Zane Heinjus.

The day didn't begin well for Holbrook which was a player short at the start of competition. The club had advised Corryong on Saturday that it would only have a team of four (instead of five) but only three players turned up, leaving one Corryong player without a match.

Corryong golfers have been adjusting to the new synthetic greens in preparation for next weekend's grand opening.

The Holbrook club has contacted the Hills Zone executive and apologised for the mixup over player numbers. It also conceded that Stokes was "in clear breach of the matchplay rules as set down by the Hills Zone and brought the game into disrepute."

The executive is considering the matter and will determine if any sanctions will be taken against the club and its player.

The two forfeits and two wins gave Corryong a 4/1 victory and the club sits equal on top of the ladder with Khancoban.

Corryong d Holbrook 4/1 (J Knott lost to G Webb 1 up; P Kamba d M Winnett 6&5, Z Heinjus d P Stokes 1 up; forfeits to M Collins & K Galbraith).

Corryong

The club is looking forward to its Opening Weekend on November 18 and 19 to officially launch its new synthetic greens.

The field for the ambrose event on the Saturday has been filled with 24 teams but entries for the 18-hole tournament on the Sunday are still being accepted.

Places are still available for the celebratory dinner on Saturday night in the restaurant ($10 per person) - to book call the club on 02 6076 1081.

Congratulations to the pennant team which defeated Holbrook 4/1 in round one at Adelong on Sunday. Special mention to Zane Heinjus in his first outing, winning on the 20th hole.

Welaregang

Paul Land bounced back to form in R2 of the 9 @ 9 Summer competition carding an impressive 21 points, well clear of runner-up Ken Lebner's 16. Paul backed up that performance with a big 6&5 win in his first pennant match on Sunday at Adelong, where the team lost 3-2 to Tumarumba.

The club is hoping for bigger numbers in R3 this Saturday as we build up to the next pennant match against arch rivals Walwa at Khancoban on November 26th.

Class	Grazemax	Dose Rate	Dose Rate

Bag Size	25 kg or 5000-kg	Feed / day	Feed / day

For when the risk of bloat and grass tetany are at their peak. Rich in Carbohydrates and those critical Vitamins & Minerals needed to beat the extreme challenge from fast growing, lush green feeds.

- Easy To Use Powder
- Butterfly Mesh Optimal Balance
- Moisture Resistant

Bloat in ruminants is the distention of the rumen-reticulum, or paunch, with gas. This gas has been formed during rapid fermentation of the feed in the rumen. The distention is usually seen on the left side as a tight ballooning of the underlying rumen from the ribs to the hip. The usual mechanism of "belching" and letting gas out through the animal's mouth has failed and so the gas accumulates. Distention can occur from pasture bloat and feedlot bloat. Olsson's Bloat-Liq is a molasses-based, anti foaming block designed to relieve the symptoms of this annual killer. Bloat-Liq is rain resistant, easy to use, works 24 hours a day and is one of the best value bloat products on the market. Available in 15 & 40kg blocks. Grazemax For Cattle & Sheep. Lush, fast growing pastures and fodder crops often lack the sophisticated nutrient profile required to optimise animal health and performance. When production challenge is high, nutritional imbalances can cause clinical symptoms like Grass Tetany, Milk Fever & Bloat.
