Father's Day ended with a bang in Khancoban this year with a spectacular fireworks event at the boat ramp park.

Entertainment was provided by Mountain Alliance and the Khancoban Pre-school and the crowd also enjoyed some great food.

This was the first event organised by the newly formed Khancoban Events Association and they were extremely pleased with the response from the community.

The committee has publicly thanked the sponsors of this year's event - Murrumbidgee Primary Health Network, Snowy Valleys Council, Snowy Hydro and Vinnies for purchasing a PA system for use at future local events.

Thanks were also extended to Don's Freight, Khancoban Angling Club, Bringenbrong RFS, the Alpine Inn and the local volunteers who provided help on the day to make the event such a great success.

Taskforce hits the region

The local community has been advised that there is no immediate risk to public safety while police and specialist units conduct a planned operation in the North East.

This included Corryong police, detectives from Wodonga and officers from the recently formed Viper Taskforce attending a property on Bunroy Road in the Biggara Valley on Tuesday morning.

"There is no concern for residents as it was part of a routine planned operation," said acting Sergeant Marc Gould.

Trackers trek to our neck of the woods

Travellers on the Murray Valley Highway between Corryong and Wodonga today will encounter a host of caravans heading to the Upper Murray for an extended stay in the region.

Around 140 caravanning enthusiasts from the Bushtracker Owners' Group Inc (BOG) will be attending the Corryong Muster which includes the group's annual general meeting.

The Australian wide caravan club has nearly 1000 members and hold its annual meeting somewhere in Australia each year and raises funds through its sponsors to donate to the local community.

The 'Boggers' will set up camp at the Towong Racecourse.

The 'Boggers' will be camped at the Towong Racecourse from today until Sunday September 18th and will participate in a number of activities during their stay including a photo competition, trivia night, bingo session, wineries excursion and market day. The group also hopes to visit Snowy Hydro at Khancoban.

Video service enhances health help options

Given the geographical challenges for people living in the Upper Murray and the need for timely, specialised and appropriate emergency health care, Corryong Health has been approved as an early adopter of the Victorian Virtual Emergency Department (VVED).

The VVED is a state-wide virtual emergency department operating 24 hours per day and seven days a week with daily specialist medical cover between 8am and 11.30pm and overnight nursing/nurse practitioner cover from 11pm to 8am.

Consultations take place over video call with access to broader emergency medical teams including emergency physicians, pediatricians, nurse practitioners and other specialists.

"This service will be used in partnership with our existing GPs, nurses and My Emergency Doctor," said Corryong Health CEO, Dominic Sandilands.

"Corryong Ambulance also using VVED.

"This service is not intended to replace existing health care services or facilities but rather to complement them to enable greater access to our Emergency Department (ED), thereby extending the breadth of emergency services and responsiveness.

"Therefore, patients presenting to our Urgent Care Centre (UCC) will be receiving high quality care with access to a broader range of services.

During a VVED consultation the patient will receive clinical assessment, medical advice, treatment and where required, local referrals to appropriate services for ongoing management.

The patient or their medical treatment decision-maker will be provided with a brochure containing information about their consultation and recommended management.

An electronic feedback form will also be sent to their nominated email address.

Corryong Health will be given a discharge summary and other relevant treatment information post consultation.

The VVED clinician will complete medication chart and transmit this to the UCC/ED for use to administer medications.

If any prescriptions are required after the consultation, VVED scripts will be sent directly to the pharmacy closest to the patient or sent electronically to the patient (where possible).

The pharmacy dispensing the prescription will be responsible for the management and clinical governance of the dispensation. The prescription should therefore be managed in line with relevant dispensing regulations.

Pull up a seat the table

An initiative to help men cope with the added pressures of today's world is coming to Corryong next month.

'The Men's Table' is a safe place to share and be heard in a confidential and non-judgemental environment, creating a greater sense of belonging, camaraderie and connection.

Belonging to a Men's Table contributes to mental, emotional and social wellbeing while being a powerful support to individual members travelling their life journeys.

The last two and half years has underpinned that it's healthy to show emotion and share feelings, yet for many men in their relationships with other blokes the talk is mostly about 'footy and crap'. There has never been a better time to be in a community.

In 2011, a group of men decided to have dinner with the intention of having a place to connect with other men and talk about the highs and lows of their lives.

They've been meeting once a month ever since to talk, laugh and share about what's going on for them and have forged meaningful relationships based on trust and acceptance of each other.

Each Men's Table is distinct and has its own personality, guided by the lessons learned through the experience of existing groups and supported by the 'Kitchen' or central office of The Men's Table, a registered not for profit organisation.

The first step in joining a Men's Table is to attend an Entree event to get a good feel for how it works through open sharing over a relaxed and conversational meal to see if it's a fit for you. The cost includes a meal and a drink.

The Upper Murray Men's Table Entree will be held on Wednesday September 14th at the Courthouse Hotel in Corryong - 6:30pm arrival for 7:00pm kick off and going through to 9:00pm.

There is no obligation to join after attending an Entree and there are no ongoing fees to join a Table. For more information or to book for the Entree in Corryong contact Michael Collins on 0450 612 358 or David Pointon on 0412 199 648.

FOCUS PARTNERS - OUR FOCUS IS YOUR FUTURE

Wetlands walk well attended

The Corryong Wetlands Group conducted a 'walk and talk' session at the development site to give interested locals the opportunity to view the area in its raw state.

The project has been given a huge impetus with a recent successful environmentally-focused grant allocation from Border Trust.

The session was well attended by around 25 people with some visiting the area for the first time.

"The prime purpose of the morning was to display what a beautiful resource we have on public land right at our very doorstep and its potential to be developed into an asset for the good of all and to enhance our local surrounds," said project co-ordinator, John Murphy.

"Much of the discussion centred around what we initially hope to achieve during Stage 1 which includes the further establishment and re-establishment of the surrounding flora, an off street car-park, compacted granite sand walkways, a raised boardwalk over the flood plain and two foot bridges.

"All these facilities will be developed with mobile disability in mind.

"The session was very productive in giving those who attended a better understanding of how the project is going to be approached but also some very good new ideas were communicated the other way.

These will certainly be taken on board."

At the end of the session a show of hands was asked for as to who would be interested in joining the Friends of the Corryong Wetlands Volunteer Group with the majority of hands being raised.

"Thank you to all those who attended and please keep your eyes on the Courier and social media for future updates and developments," John added.

Call goes out for emergency volunteers

The Corryong SES unit needs more members as a matter of urgency.

Enthusiastic people who like a challenge and are keen to support their community before, during and after emergencies are being sought now.

Members are not limited to those living in Corryong and people from across the district including Walwa, Cudgewa and Tintaldra are being invited to find out how they can support the SES.

An information session is being held on Wednesday 14th September from 5.30pm to 6.30pm at the Corryong SES headquarters in Jardine Street for people to find out how they can get on board.

SES members will be in attendance to share information, answer your questions and display some of the equipment and vehicles that are part of the SES way of doing things.

A light supper provided and children are welcome.

Show day nears

The 2022 Corryong Show is shaping up to be the biggest and best show to date, complete with lots of entertainment and activities for all ages.

The show will cater for all tastes from the traditional show favorites such as kids rides, face painting and pavilion, combined with favorites from the 2021 cracker night including night entertainment, a band and what is set to be an even bigger firework display thanks to Towong Shire.

The Pavilion is set to run a little differently this year than the shows of the past.

Pavilion entries will now be taken online using the Showday Online platform or in person at the Show Office, located at the Corryong Neighbourhood Centre which will be open on Wednesday 28th September from 9am-12pm and Thursday 29th September from 1pm-4pm.

Pavilion entries will need to be delivered to the Corryong Events Centre before 10am Friday September 30th for judging. The pavilion will then open on Show Day, Saturday October 1st from 3pm to 6pm.

There are plenty of exciting categories to enter, including cookery, farm and garden through to needlework and photography.

There are some new categories you could try your hand at including home brew beer and decorated jocks!

The pet show and dog jump will be run on the Saturday. Do you think you have a dog that is the best bikkie catcher or who can do the best trick? There will also be a dachshund dash. If you have a sausage dog then you are able to enter! There is a trophy for the fastest local wiener!

There are a host of show amusement rides, food stalls, markets and entertainment.

Keep an eye on the Corryong Courier and social media for more information and for ticket release dates. Tickets will be sold through Eventbrite and at the gate on show day.

The show is run entirely by local volunteers and the committee is always looking for helpers on show day, particularly running the gate and helping in the bar.

If you would be interested in volunteering, contact the Corryong Show via social media.

As part of the Corryong SES Unit volunteer recruitment drive for new members this competition is open to all local children in two sections - 8 and Under and 9 to 12 years. Two SES prize packs including a wind-up torch radio are available for the best two entries - just lodge your entry at the Drop-In Information Session on Wednesday September 14th at the Corryong SES Headquarters in Jardine Street between 5.30pm and 6.30pm. Welaregang

Tony Jarvis continued his good form from last week's club tournament to win a place in the Monthly Medal playoff with a fine nett 71. He also won a very competitive McGrath Cup semi-final against Lance Noonan 2&1.

These two players dominated the day with the latter carding 76 nett to finish second on the day. Tony and Bill Bond tied for the putting prize with 26 each.

This week sees the final round of the Phil Cribb Trophy with just one point separating Tony Jarvis and Lance Noonan with Bill Sheather an outside chance if he plays the game of his life.

New players are always welcome to join in the Sunday competitions and enjoy this magnificent course in these perfect Spring conditions - names in by 11.30am for 12 noon hit - off.

Blues keep flag hopes alive

Cudgewa took full advantage of perfect conditions and a manicured home deck to oust Bullioh from the finals race with a comprehensive 65-point victory in Saturday's preliminary final to set up a much anticipated contest against Tumbarumba in this week's premiership decider.

However, the win didn't come without some nervous moments because as soon as the Blues skipped away to a handy margin Bullioh would reel them in with a run of goals themselves.

Best-on-ground Craig Lieschke was 'Mr Everywhere Man' and was instrumental in Cudgewa establishing a five goal lead at the long break with Haydn Cook and Jack Ross providing great support. Lieschke capped off an all-round performance with four goals as well.

The Bulldogs weren't going to roll over though and mounted a spirited comeback in the third term mainly through the efforts of Wade Knights, Jake Curran and Harrison Cowie whose good work was capped off by Tom McGibbony who booted four goals.

With the match still very much alive, the Blues went up a gear and peppered the big sticks with the evergreen Greg Wheeler turning back the clock to post five goals and Luke Bloom and Nick Brockley chiming in with three majors apiece to put the issue beyond doubt.

In the reserves final, Cudgewa caused a minor upset by despatching Tumbarumba to the tune of 33 points and earning the right to take on Bullioh in the grand final.

The Under 14s was all one-way traffic with Tumbarumba smashing the scoreboard to defeat Bullioh by 102 points.

As forecast, the A grade netball match was a cracker with a hard-nosed Cudgewa outfit prevailing by four goals over a Federal team that fought the match out to the finish.

Cudgewa veteran Greg Wheeler turned back the clock to kick five goals in the preliminary final.

Roos chase the double

Tumbarumba is primed to win its first premiership in close to a decade when it takes on Cudgewa in Saturday's grand final but the Blues have a point to prove after losing the 2019 decider when hot favourites and the loss of the last two seasons because of the pandemic.

The Roos went back-to-back in 2012 and 2013 and have been the dominant team this season, only losing one match to Bullioh back in round eight.

They have had the wood on Cudgewa in their four encounters to date but had a close shave in the second semi when the Blues stormed home only to fall short by eight points with the Roos' dual attack of Tyler Lampe and Dan Hitchens kicking 11 of their team's 16 goals.

Cudgewa will need to put some work into curbing the influence of the two sharpshooters but has had little success in this regard in three of their four clashes in 2022.

Ominously, neither played in the Roos 72-point round 11 win, although the Blues were also down in strength that day.

Cudgewa showed in the preliminary final that they are capable of racking up a big score and a shootout may be their best chance of turning the tables on the flag favourites if they can win enough midfield ball to feed their forward line containing the league's leading goalkicker Nick Brockley and wily veteran Greg Wheeler. The Blues will also hope Kylin Morey returns to the side to add some firepower but they will sorely miss the injured Ben Hall's opportunism at the goal-face.

The onus will then fall on the Blues' on-ballers Craig Lieschke, Jake Vinge, Jack Ross and Luke Bloom to get first use of the Sherrin and push forward in support.

However, the Roos boast a potent combination around the stoppages in equal best and fairest winner Jacob Read and Jim Waters along with proven performers Connor Clayton and Quinn Rooney.

If the Blues are within a couple of goals at the last break they could spring a surprise but with the week's rest and at home, the cards are stacked in the Roos' favour.

Tumbarumba could make it a double celebration when it takes on Cudgewa in the A grade netball decider.

There have been mixed results between the two combatants this season including a draw in round 6 and the Blues were comfortable winners in round 11 by 12 goals. However, the Roos turned the tables in the second semi with a surprising 67-44 scoreline and the Blues will need to regroup to reverse that result but their greater finals experience and dual attack of Kirby Hillier and Sophie Greenhill may just get the job done.
